

Threat Assessment Training (TAT)

| Prefix | Course Title | Hours |
|--------|---|-------|
| 01 | Fundamentals of Threat Assessment An Introduction to Threat Assessment and Management. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● This first course of three provides you with an overview of the history and evolution of behavioral threat assessment. It includes topics and vignettes/case studies through a cultural context and an equity lens. This course will give you a better understanding of the need for and design of a Threat Assessment Team. ● Evolution of threat assessment ● Key concepts and definitions ● Risk factors and mitigators ● Cultural context, diversity, and inclusion | 8 |
| 02 | Application of Threat Assessment This course uses vignettes to assess and manage situations of concern by conducting behavioral threat assessments. It provides an overview of interviewing skills, violence risk prevention, and formal threat assessment instruments. Providing vignettes in a gradual fashion, each team and team members will use their analytical skills and multidisciplinary strengths to assess and manage situations of concern. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Interviewing skills ● Information gathering ● Multi-disciplinary team processes & team dynamics ● Marketing your team ● Cultural context, diversity & inclusion ● Vignettes/Case studies | 8 |
| 03 | Advanced Threat Assessment (social media, legal, ethical) Essential threat management principles and processes. Learn about risk factors, inhibitors, and mitigating factors as they relate to the pathway to violence. We will address the importance of cultural proficiency and humility when responding to situations of concern. This course will give you a brief overview of how to locate, extract, analyze, and react to social media data. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ● Management instruments, and tools ● Apply threat management techniques ● Evaluation and interpretation of information ● Confidentiality and mandatory reporting ● Applicable federal and state laws ● Ethical dilemmas/case studies This includes interpreting, and evaluating information and deploying safety protocols through a multidisciplinary team approach. | 8 |